FUNCTIONAL STATEMENT AND PURPOSE

The Office of the Inspector General (OIG) of the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) is seeking a highly qualified Senior Special Agent with experience in a wide variety of investigative assignments involving alleged or suspected violations of criminal laws, ethics standards, and policies and practices of the agency.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's Degree from a four-year course of study at an accredited college or university.
- Must have a minimum of 12 years investigative experience, 6 of which must be equivalent to Special Agent Level III.
- Must have completed a basic criminal investigations training course at a federal criminal investigators academy.
- Employment is subject to successful completion of a physical, drug screening, and background investigation.
- Must be able to meet the medical standards and training qualifications prescribed for the Special Agent position by the U.S. Department of Justice and the U.S. Marshals.
- Position requires nationwide travel.
- Must possess a valid driver's license.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Experience as an 1811 Criminal Investigator or an equivalent position.

DESIRED SKILLS/KNOWLEDGE

- Knowledge of investigative techniques and the rules of evidence and criminal procedure, and precedential court decisions concerning admissibility of evidence, constitutional rights, search and seizure, and other issues relating to investigations.
- Ability to recognize, develop new issues for investigation, and present evidence that reconstructs events, sequences, and time elements, and establishes relationships, responsibilities, legal liabilities, and conflicts of interest, in a manner that meets requirements for presentation in various administrative hearings and court proceedings.
- Ability to communicate orally and in report form for determination of prosecutive merit.
- Provides support, guidance, and mentoring to other OIG special agents and analysts.
